EASTINGTON PARISH COUNCIL CHAIRMANS REPORT 2020/21

I am sure you'll agree that it has been a very different time for us all over the last 18 months - thanks to Covid19.

Parish Council welcomed our new Clerk, Marianne Simpson, at the last meeting held here before lockdown – but since then all our work has had to be done remotely. It is difficult for a new Clerk, or anyone, to settle into a new job with the kind of restrictions we have had to work under, so I am very grateful to our Clerk for all her hard work and patience during this time.

We have also welcomed two new Councillors Rosemary Robinson and Chris Coombes, who are attending their first face to face meeting with the rest of the Council. I would like to thank them and all Councillors for their commitment to still carrying out jobs around the Parish.

Council has still been covering important planning work and thanks are due to our Planning Clerk, Karen Hayes.

The Council also recognises and extend our thanks to the volunteers who helped the businesses to distribute food and meals.

On an unhappy note, we were saddened to learn of the death of Councillor Jill Simmons. Jill was a valued member of Eastington Parish Council for many years and her knowledge and kindness will be much missed.

2021

An Election for Councillors was unnecessary, as we are three short of our full quota. We are hoping to co-opt new Councillors as soon as possible.

As lockdown is slowly lifted, we will be hoping to add some future colour to the parish by planting up the village gateway troughs ready for the Autumn/Winter season.
